Insurance Policy:

As an out of network provider, we are not contracted with any insurance companies, and we do not accept payment from insurance companies. You can request a statement of service and payment (i.e. superbill) that you can use to file insurance for yourself. Dr. McKay has opted out of Medicare. Please notify the office if you have Medicare insurance, you will need to sign an additional form and this insurance cannot be filed by Dr. McKay or by the patient.

Appointment Charges / Cancellation Policy:

We do not overbook appointments and appointments made are reserved for the patient. We require a 24-hour cancellation notice. Patients will be charged the full session rate if they do not cancel an appointment within the 24-hour time frame or if they fail to keep their appointment on the day it is scheduled. If you need to change or reschedule an appointment, please call our office as soon as you can so we can accommodate other patients who wish to be seen.

Paperwork Policy

Requests to complete forms or any other paperwork (such as FMLA or disability) may result in additional charges that reflect existing rates. Fee will depend on time needed to complete forms appropriately and this may include writing, chart review for supporting clinical documentation, preparing/sending faxes, and other administrative business tasks.

Office Hours:

Dr. McKay's office hours are by appointment Monday through Friday. The front office is open Monday through Thursday 9am – 4pm and Friday 9am – 2pm. If you need to contact the office regarding an appointment, billing questions or for general needs please call during these hours.

If you need to speak with your doctor between office visits, please call the office 9am-4pm. We will be able to get a message to your doctor asking him to call you back.

Medication refill policy:

Medication refill requests require a 24-hour notice. If medication refills are required between appointments, please have your pharmacy fax us a refill request. If you need to call for a refill you can do so Monday through Thursday 9am-4pm and Friday 9am-12 noon. Refills will be communicated to your pharmacy within 24 hours during regular business hours. After hours and weekend requests may not be called in until the next business day. Please call with your prescription information and dosage as well as your pharmacy name, location and phone number. We will need this information to complete your refill request.

Notice of Privacy Practices

(Medical)

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") is a federal program that requires that all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any significant new rights to understand and control how your health information is used. "HIPAA" provides penalties for covered entities that misuse personal health information.

As required by "HIPAA", we have prepared this explanation of how we are required to maintain the privacy of your health information and how we may use and disclose your health information.

We may use and disclose your medical records only for each of the following purposes: treatment, payment and health care operations.

- Treatment means providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more healthcare providers. An example of this would include completing a prior authorization for medication on your behalf through your insurance company and pharmacy.
- Payment means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collection activities, and utilization review (a health insurance company's opportunity to review a request for medical treatment). An example of this would be sending a bill for your visit to your insurance company for payment or communication with your insurance company regarding treatments you have received or requested that have been billed to them.
- Health care operations include the business aspects of running our practice, such as conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis, and customer service. An example would be an internal quality assessment review.

We may also create and distribute de-identified health information by removing all references to individually identifiable information.

We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

We may communicate with you by email through an encrypted email system as referenced in your new patient paperwork.

We may call your name in the waiting area which could be overheard by others.

Any other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization in writing and we are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that we have already taken actions relying on your authorization.

You have the following rights with respect to your protected health information, which you can exercise by presenting a written request to your provider:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information, including those related to disclosures to family members, other relatives, close personal friends, or any other person identified by you. We are, however, not required to agree to a requested restriction. If we do agree to a restriction, we must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.
- The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of protected health information from us by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- The right to inspect and copy your protected health information.
- The right to amend your protected health information.
- The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us upon request.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information.

This notice is effective as of January 1, 2011 and we are required to abide by the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices currently in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. You may request a written copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices from this office at any time.

You have recourse if you feel that your privacy protections have been violated. You have the right to file written complaint with our office, or with the Department of Health & Human Services, Office of Civil Rights, about violations of the provisions of this notice or the policies and procedures of our office. We will not retaliate against you for filing and complaint.
